THE VINDICATOR

Of the Ancient Order and Self-denying Principles of the Church, as taught by the Savior and held forth by the Fathers of our Fraternity.

"I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE." (St. John 14:6)

Thus saith the Lord, stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls.

VOL. LXXXI Covington, Ohio, January, 1950 No. 1

THE THINGS OF GOD

Do I?
When from His book my lessons I learn,
Behold his wonders at every turn,
Then look up and say, I cannot discern,
"The things of God." Mark 8:33

Will I?
While enjoying his blessings from day to day,
Make no effort to praise or pray,
Thinking only of pleasure I'd cast away,
"The Gift of God." Rom. 6:23

Would I?
When inward full of remorse I feel,
Endeavor as Judas my name to conceal,
For coins of silver to wicked men reveal,
"The Son of God. Mat. 26:15

Can I?
While in the light as one that sees,
Fold my arms and rest at ease,
And in the final day of appease,
"The wrath of God." Eph. 5:6

Must I?
When I shall stand before His throne,
Receive the fruits from the seeds I've sown,
Then from His lips hear this word "Disown,
An heir of God." Rom. 8:17

Why not I?
Endeavor my best His commandments to keep,
Be not a goat, but one of His sheep,
Receive not a sentence, but this my receipt,
"A mansion of God." St. John 14:2.

YOU HAVE GONE

You have gone and I remain,
To walk the road alone;
I'll live in memory's garden, dear,
With happy days we've known;
In Spring I'll wait the roses red,
When fades the lilacs blue;
In early Fall when brown leaves fall,
I'll catch a glimpse of you.

You have gone and I remain
For battles to be fought;
Each thing you've touched along the way
Will be a hallowed spot;
I hear your voice, I see your smile,
Though blindly I may grope;
The memory of your helping hand
Bouy's me on with hope.

You have gone and I remain
To finish with the scroll;
No length'ning shadows shall creep in
To make this life seem droll;
We've known so much of happiness,
We've had our cup of joy;
And memory is one gift of God
That death cannot destroy.

You have gone and I remain;
One thing I'll have you do;
Walk slowly down the path of death,
For soon I'll follow you;
I'll want to know each step you take,
That I may walk the same;
For some day down that lonely road
You'll hear me call your name.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father in Thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There the tears of earth are dried;
There the hidden things are clear;
There the work of life is tried
By a juster judge than here.
Father in Thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There the pentitents, that turn
To the cross their dying eyes
All the love of Christ shall learn
At His feet in Paradise.
Father in Thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

There no more the powers of hell
Can prevail to mar their peace;
Christ the Lord shall guard them well,
He who died for their release.
Father in Thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

"Earth to earth and dust to dust,"
Calmly now the words we say,
Left behind we wait in trust
For the Resurrection Day:
Father in Thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

FATHER'S HYMNS

"Our Fathers' house is built on high,"
He sang, and drove along,
"Far, far above the starry sky,"
The morning heard his song.
It seemed to give him, hope renewed,
And sped the hours by,
The while he built a home on earth,
To plan one in the sky.

"My days are gliding swiftly by,"
His voice rose clear and strong,
"And I'm a pilgrim stranger here
And will not tarry long."
The days were swift and full of toil
But the King has bid him come
To claim the unmolested rest
Of his eternal home.

A prayer it was to hear him sing,
"Thou great Jehovah guide
A pilgrim through this barren land
Safe to the other side;
And on the bread of heaven feed
Where crystal waters flow,
And through the swelling Jordan stream
O, do Thou help me go."

The voice that sung is quiet now
To these dull mortal ears;
No more he sings about the home
Beyond this vale of tears.
He's there at last and stands redeemed,
And sings a new refrain;
Some day if I live faithful here
I'll hear him sing again.

We cease to mourn for those who sleep;
Only their forms are wrapped in shrouds.

Only her form of dust and clay,
Are buried 'neath the grass green sod:
Her soul is gone, gone far away,
To meet her Maker and her God.
Oh, weep not for the slumbering dead,
But weep if thou wilt weep at all,
For, and with those, who live today;
The dead heed not thy tears which fall.

The candles burned from end to end,
The chain of life's a broken thread
For those who sleep the sleep of death,
And sleeping thus, let them be dead.
And if thy heart is over-full
Of love for those departed, gone,
Oh, share it with the living hearts,
Give it not to the dead alone.

Tomorrow's sun may never shine,
Today's own sun may never set
For some who live and weep today,
Whose eyes with dewy tears are wet.
Today, tonight, tomorrow brings
Us nearer, nearer to the end—
And what can other's tears avail
When face to face we meet our Friend.
The vail that hangs 'twixt earth and heav'n,
Which parts eternity and time,
Whose shadows hang the valley o'er,
Like misty fogs of ocean's brine;
Oh fear it not my brother, friend,
No harm in its deep mystery lies,
For GOD supreme reigns over there
Where we Immortal shall arise.

OBITUARIES

WHEN WILL HE COME?

Perhaps He will come at the dawning
Of a beautiful summer day,
When the birds and flowers are a-wakening
To welcome the sun's first ray.
And the eastern sky will brighten
With the light of the dawn's caress,
And herald the swift arising
Of the Sun of Righteousness.

Perhaps He will come at the evening,
When, weary with toil and care,
We rest and watch as the darkness
Creeps over the landscape fair;
And behold the stars in their beauty
Shine forth from their depths afar,
But their radiance dims in the glory
Of the Bright and Morning Star.

And perhaps He will come at midnight
When earth and its dwellers sleep,
When over the mountains and valleys
Broods a silence vast and deep;
And the trump of the great arch-angel
Shall waken the slumberer's there,
And His saints will be caught up together
To meet the Lord in the air.

But whether at dawn or evening,
At midnight or sultry noon
And whether awake or sleeping,
And the time be distant or soon;
May I live so that I shall be ready
With Joy my Saviour to meet,
And feel no alarm at His coming
But hasten His heralds to greet.

Sel. O. H. Flora,
Sawyer, Kan.

GOD'S WAY IS BEST

I know not where my Lord may lead,
O'er barren plain or grassy mead;
Through valley or on mountain crest,
But where He leads, I know 'tis best.

I know not what a day may bring
Of perfect health or suffering;
Of rich delight or deep distress,
Keen disappointment or success.

Nor do I know at morning sun
If life shall last till day is done;
But this I know—come toil or rest,
God always sends me what is best.

God often sends me joy through pain;
Through bitter loss, divinest gain;
Yet through it all—dark days or bright,
I know my Father leads aright.

And when life's evening shadows fall,
And I shall hear the final call,
I'll lean my head upon His breast,
And say, "Dear Lord, Thy way is best."

EBY—The death of Christian N. Eby marks the passing of one of Preble County's pioneer families. His father, Wilson Eby, came from Maryland over a hundred years ago. He marrried Elizabeth Stover, and settled on a farm in Lanier Township where all their children were born. Christian was the ninth of a family of ten children and the last surviving member.

He bought a farm across the road from his father, and built new buildings just in time to have them all demolished by a cyclone in May, 1886. Shortly after their marriage, they both joined the Old Order German Baptist Church and worked faithfully and willingly together for the Church for many years. He was elected to the office of Deacon in the Church.

They lived on land adjoining his father's farm until he was forced to retire from all work at the age of 83. His faithful wife passed on in 1936. While living in retirement with his daughter, Mrs. Virginia Prugh he fell in his bedroom on Feb. 3, and fractured a hip. Although taken to Good Samaritan Hospital in Dayton and the bone was set and pinned, he never recovered from the shock. OBITUARIES

MOTHER HAS FALLEN ASLEEP

Mother was tired and weary,
Weary with toil and pain;
Put by her glasses and rocker,
She will not need them again.
Into heaven's mansions She's entered
Never to sigh or to weep,
After long years with life's struggles,
Mother has fallen asleep.

Near other loved ones we laid her,
Low in the church yard to lie,
Although our hearts are broken,
Yet we would not question, "Why?"
She does not rest 'neath the grasses
Tho' o'er her dear grave they creep,
She has gone into the Kingdom,
Mother has fallen asleep.

Rest the tired feet now forever,
Dear wrinkled hands are so still,
Blast of the earth shall no longer
Throw o'er our loved one a chill.
Angels through heaven will guide her,
Jesus will still bless and keep,
Not for the world would we wake her,
Mother has fallen asleep.

Beautiful rest for the weary,
Well deserved rest for the true,
When our life's journey is ended
We shall again be with you.
This helps to quiet our weeping,
Hark! angel voices so sweet!
He gives to His own beloved,
Baeutiful, beautiful sleep.

Sel. Bertha Miller,
Wakarusa, Ind.

MOTHER

She is our dearest friend on earth,
She shares our sorrows and our mirth;
We find no words to tell the worth
Of Mother.

Who when our friends all prove untrue,
And we are feeling sad and blue;
Who is it then that comforts you?
Dear Mother.

And when confined unto our bed
She gently bathes our aching head,
And for us tears of love doth shed;
Sweet Mother

She teaches us from day to day
To put our trust in God and pray
For Him to guide us on our way;
Our Mother.

And when at last God calls her home,
And we are left here all alone,
Oh, sad and dreary is our home
Without Mother.

With aching hearts our pain we bear,
We seek for friends both near and far,
But can find none that can compare
With Mother.

But yet her words remain so sweet,
They guide along our weary feet,
We have the hope again to meet
Our Mother.

The Family

As heaven hath entered here.

For I see that when you have trodden
The thorny path of pain,
This selfish world is never
The same chill place again;
Henceforth you love the sorrowing
With ardent might and main.

And songs of consolation
Breathe sweet from pole to pole;
And the cheat of the outer varnish
Like a shell off all doth roll;
And you stand with your fellow mourners,
Quivering soul to soul.

Then fear not, anxious mortal!
When you tread the path of pain;
God links you with your comrades there
In a new resplendent chain;
And for every pang you suffer,
He pays you back again.

GOODBYE DARLING

In the gloaming, oh my darling,
When the lights are burning low,
I am listening to the nite wind
Tell me that I'll miss you so.
Moaning softly, goodbye darling,
Do not weep for me I pray
Just remember this one promise
We will meet again some day.

In the gloaming, oh my darling,
As the shadows come and go;
I can hear your sweet voice whisper,
Darling, yes, you'll miss me so.
Well, I know you could not stay dear;
God has called and you must go.
Still I can not keep from grieving,
Knowing that I'll miss you so.

In the gloaming, oh, my darling,
From the quiet shadows deep,
Comes your voice so sweet and tender
"Jesus gives His loved ones sleep."
We shall softly tread about you,
Nor disturb your slumber deep,
Knowing God hath kept His promise—
Given His Beloved Sleep.

"Thy will Be done." May we be Comforted in choosing God's own appointed way, and in "The garden" behold the lovliness of our dear departed ones again some Happy Day.

JOHNSON—Anna Pearl Johnson, daughter of Albert M. and Effie Mohler Keller, was born September 21, 1897, in Carroll County, Indiana, near Burlington. Most of the early part of her life was spent near Rossville, pleasantly serving her family and others wherever needed.

At the age of seventeen years she chose her calling and was received by baptism into the Old German Baptist Church in the North Fork district near Rossville, Indiana.

At the age of twenty-three years she united in marriage to Paul R. Johnson of Bader, Illinois. She was many times, and in many ways, more than just a wife, mother and general help-mate as all who knew her so well know.

Left in deep sorrow by her departure are her husband; one son William C. Johnson and wife Pauline; daughter Joanna Sager and husband Boyd; daughter Mary Jo; 2 granddaughters Phyllis Ann and Carrol Kay Johnson; Her aged and blind father; brothers Glen and Robert Keller; and sisters, Mary Keller, Mrs. Josephine Bartells, Mrs. Ruth Knop, Mrs. Verna Kessler, Mrs. Dorothy Cable and Mrs. Nina James.

Prior to her series of recent major operations, Anna suffered for years from the effects of burns received in an accident in the home, but through all her handicap and discomfort she continued to fully discharge her duties of helping and guiding her little family through the daily trials of life that faced each one, whether husband, son or daughter. To the neighbors she was always ready and did, lend a helping hand as long as her health permitted. If someone needed help and there was no other way to go Anna carried whatever was needed and walked.

Selfless consideration for others, with no regard for her own personal feelings, was her creed in life. It was manifest in her character to the extent that it left an indelible impression on all whose life she touched, whether casual acquaintance or bosom friend. No task ever seemed too great to undertake, or too small to merit full consideration.

She accepted her lot of suffering through life as being for some express purpose in God's Infinite Plan, and in her heart always was that unselfish Prayer, "Not my will, Oh God, but Thine be done."

Anna passed from time to Eetrnity at the Schmitt Memorial Hospital, Beardstown, Illinois, at 11:40 p. m. April 15, 1950, aged 52 years, 6 months and 25 days.

On Tuesday, April 18th, short services were held in the home, followed by funeral services at the Mud Valley Church, led by Brother Alpha Davison of Anderson county, Kansas and assisted by the home brethren. Text, second Timothy 4:6, 7, 8. Hymns 483, 395, 443, 384. Burial in the Mud Valley cemetery there to await that last great Call.

Lovingly submitted by her Family

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

OBITUARIES

NOW AND THEN

"Now we see through a glass darkly, but then face to face."

Now—we are toiling through a weary life,
Then—we shall rest;
Now—We are battling with sin and strife;
Then—we shall rest.

Now—We are groaning 'neath a heavy load,
Our feet grow weary of the dusty road,
The upland path is steep, the hills we climb,
Then—we shall rest.

Now—we are pupils in the school of time,
Then—we shall know;
Now—We are reaching after truths sublime,
Then—we shall know.
Now—amid the mists of years,
Doubts are ours and many fears;
Soon will pass the gloom of night;
Heaven will give us cloudless light;
Then—we shall know.

Then—mind and heart will glow,
With raptures untold;
All we have longed to know
Heaven will unfold;
Then—we shall hail in song,
Him we have loved so long;
We His dear face shall see,
And through eternity
Follow the Lamb!

LORD LET ME LIVE

Lord, let me live from day to day
A simple life, a noble way;
Lead me with unfailing light
Up the narrow path of right.
Give me the grace that I might be
Nearer likened unto Thee,
That I might do the best I can
To ease the load of fellow man.

Give me the strength that I might bear
Through darkest night and sad despair
The trials, the burdens, and the pain
That fill each life—yet not complain:
And when at last I reach the shore
Let me know Thy grace once more,
Through earthly strife no more to roam,
Take me, Father, to Thy home.

HEAVEN

When shall human grief be stilled,
And joy for pain be given,
Where dwells the sunshine of a love
In which the soul may always rove?
A sweet voice answers—Heaven.

O, heart, I said, when death shall come
And all thy cords be riven,
What lies beyond the swelling tide?
The same sweet voice to mine replied
In lovely accents—Heaven.

Where, where shall friendship never die,
Nor parting hand be given?
My heart was filled with strange delight,
For in that silent hush of night,
I heard the answer—Heaven.

O, voyager on life's fitful sea;
By stormy billows driven;
Say what can soothe thy aching breast,
Or, give thee comfort joy, and rest,
Like Mother, Home, and Heaven?

I shall pass through this life but once, any good thing, therefore, that I can do, any kindness I can show to any human being Let me do it now, Let me not defer it, nor neglect it; for I shall not pass this way again.

She leaves to mourn: her 4 sons; 20 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; 1 half-sister, Sister Rebecca Barton, and 1 half-brother, Bro. Rufus Wells. Also 4 step-sons; Henry, Crist, Josiah and John Brubaker; and 2 stepdaughters; Leah Montgomery and Al-

We feel our loss is her eternal gain.

WAITING

Over the river, over the river—
The deep, dark river—
Spirit voices call to me;
But I'm waiting, calmly waiting,
Till the angry flood abating
Takes my feeble voice across the wave.

Over the river, over the river—
Death's dark, gloomy river—
A shadowed form appears;
And I'm waiting, calmly waiting,
Till the angry flood abating
Takes my feeble voice across the wave.

Over the river, over the river—
Shadowed boatman, take thy way;
For I'm tired and weary waiting,
Waiting for the creaking oar,
Which, lying silent on the other shore
Mocks my feeble voice across the wave.

Spirit boatman, spirit boatman,
Durst thou not come o'er the tide?
For I'm waiting, and I'm longing for the coming
And I'm waiting, fondly waiting,
Till the angry flood abating
Takes my feeble voice across the wave.

Over the river, over the river,
Comes a boatman forth to me,
For I hear the splashing oar;
And a voice louder than the blast so shrill
Cries, "Peace, be still,
For I've heard the voice across the wave.

And I'm coming, surely coming,
O'er these waters deep and dark,
To the soul that's patient—waiting,
Gently waiting, fondly waiting,
For a passage o'er the wave.

MEMORIES—

Only a babys grave—
A foot or two at the best
Of tear dewed sod:
But a loving God
Knows what the little grave cost.

Only a baby's life—
Brief as a perfumed kiss,
So fleet it goes;
But our Father knows
We are nearer to Him for this.

OBITUARIES

DOTH NOT GOD DO ALL THINGS WELL?

"Faith and hope doth pass away,
But love can never die;
Though dearest objects of that love
In silent graves may lie.

So sleep beloved, take thy rest,
Our loss has been thy gain;
Heaven is richer, earth is poorer,
Since Jesus called thy name.

We sorrow not as others do,
Whose hopes fade like the flowers;
There is a hope that's born of God,
And such a hope is ours.

Thou canst not come to us again,
But we shall go to Thee;
When God's bright day of glory breaks,
And earth's night shadows flee."

Sel. Nettie V. Reece,
Fairview, Mo.

PRAYER

"Oh, how heavy seems the burdens,
And the cross is hard to bear,
When we're out of touch with Jesus,
And His tender loving care.

Quickly vanish all the storm clouds,
Even shadows flee away,
And we feel His smile upon us,
When we go alone to pray.

When the friends that we have loved most
Do not even seem to care,
We may still find sweetest comfort
When we turn to God in prayer.

When the heart is crushed with sorrow,
That seems more than we can bear,
There is blessed consolation,
When we go to God in prayer.

Let us trust in every promise,
Cast on Jesus every care;
He has promised to deliver,
If we keep in touch by prayer.

EAKINS—Elvina King Eakins was born December 13, 1859 near Palestine, Darke Co., O. She passed away near Coleman, Mich., Aug. 9, 1950. She was the daughter of Christian and Barbara Livengood King.

She completed her Christian journey of more than 90 years and retained her mental faculties to the end of her race. She requested anointing a month previous to her passing and his gave her much comfort.

She was united in marriage to Lloyd Eakins and 4 children were born to them, of which 2 are still living; Herman and Herschel.

She lived in Michigan with her brother Noah King for a number of years, until his decease when she returned to Ohio and made her home with her brother David. Upon his decease she again returned to Michigan with her son Herschel, until she injured herself by a fall and was taken to a convalescent home until her decease. She was the last survivor of a large family of children. She was tenderly cared for in her last days.

Funeral Service was held at the Thurston Funeral Home August 11, 1950, after which her body was placed in a Cemetery a few miles distant.

She is gone but not forgotten.

BECKNER — Elizabeth Beckner, daughter of John D. and Catherine (Cripe) Musselman, was born in Carroll Co., Ind., on December 12, 1870. She departed this life at the convalescent Home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Meadow, Oxford Ave., Roanoke, Va., on August 24, 1950. Age 79 years, 8 months, and 12 days.

In early life she joined the church of her choice; The Old German Baptist, and remained faithful until death.

On March 26, 1912, she was united in marriage to Josiah Beckner of Roanoke, Va., where she spent the remainder of her life. They shared the joys of life together about 34 years.

In May of 1944, Sister Lizzie was stricken with paralysis and was not permitted to talk any more, only in a whisper. In the beginning of her affliction, she remembered the injunction of James and called for the elders, and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord.

In August 1944, she was removed from her home to Mrs. Meadows, where she received the best of care. Her husband preceded her in death on October 31, 1946.

She was greatly missed in the Church and in the Community since the time of her affliction. It can be truly said of her that she has done what she could. We firmly believe that in the first resurrection she will come forth with a perfect body, not an afflicted one.

She leaves to mourn her departure: 1 sister, Clara Swisher; neices and nephews; and a host of friends.

Funeral by the home brethren on August 26, 1950, at the Peters Creek Church, to a large congregation of sympathizing friends. Interment in Peters Creek Cemetery beside her companion.

CAMPBELL—Mrs. Mary Virginia

Campbell, born in Franklin County, Virginia, August 28, 1860, departed from this life to be at rest with her Lord on August 25, 1950, age 89 years, 11 months and 28 days.

She was united in marriage March 6, 1878 to John W. Campbell. This union continued unbroken for a long period of 60 years until his death, November 7, 1938. Since then, the past 12 years, she has remained a widow. To this Holy Wedlock was born 9 children of which 2 preceded her in death and 7 are living. The survivors are Della Hull, Charles Campbell, Nora Kreitzer, John Campbell, Jr., May Mershon, Osco Campbell, and Eldon Campbell. Also 17 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

At the early age of 13 years she was baptized in The Old German Baptist Church and until she was physically unable to go, she was a regular attendant and a supporter of the Wolf Creek Church in which she lived. Although, being unable to take an active part in the program of the Church, she always remained true to her Baptismal Vows and faithful to her Lord.

All through her long life she was very kind, never jealous or boastful, she was not overbearing or rude, she never insisted upon her own way, she was not easily irritated and never resentful; she never rejoiced at any wrong, but was always eager to believe the best; always hopeful, always patient; because of these Virtues she had no enemies but made many friends of whom loved her for the person she really was. Many years ago she gave herself to the One who was able to keep her from falling and to present her faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.

To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

Funeral services were conducted in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Allen Krietzer on August 28 at 2 p.m., by the home brethren. Text, St. John 14:2. Interment in Landes Cemetery near Brookville, Ohio.

PRICES CREEK, O. CHURCH FIRE

The Communion Services held at this place on Oct. 14, were disrupted in the evening by a disastrous fire which originated from a defective flue. Passersby first detected the fire and notified those within, but it had gained such headway that nothing could be done to prevent the building burning to the ground. The ordinances of the house of God were being observed at the time: Footwashing Services were over, the Lord's Supper had just been placed on the table when Elder J. W. Thomas made announcement that it would be necessary to vacate the building and to do so in an orderly manner. This was accomplished very quietly and in a Christian like manner so that no one was injured. The benches and cooking utensils were removed, the tables being carried out with the Supper still placed on them.

Brethren Luther and Herman Shuman of Ind. were present for this meeting and it was decided to hold the Sunday Service at the Salem Church. They preached very fittingly and forcibly to a large attentive audience, many of whom were feeling their loss very keenly.

The members of the Prices Creek Church are very appreciative of the kind, consoling words of comfort and the assistance given them during this time and wish to thank all for their many offers of help.

Meeting on Wednesday evening Oct. 18 a unanimous decision was made to rebuild their church as soon as possible, and a Building Committee was chosen by the Church by vote, which is composed of the following brethren: John Hapner, Glen Deaton, John Lair, Lee Landes, Ray Denlinger, and Aaron Flora, R. 1, Eldorado, O., Treasurer.

This loss is felt very keenly by the members residing at Prices Creek and no doubt many will want to help bear their loss realizing that all we have is from the providential care of our heavenly Father.. The Scriptures say "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ."

OBITUARIES

IN MEMORY

Often memory turns to gaze upon that autumn night.

48

We wonder why in prime of life
He took a sudden flight.

We thought not at the close of day
When night veiled earth and sky,
That one so full of life and hope
Would breath his last good-bye.

The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought his death so near.
Only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without fare-well.

A helping hand to all he knew,
He was so kind, so generous and true;
On earth he nobly did his best,
Grant him, Jesus, heavenly rest.

When evening shades are falling
And we sit in quiet, alone
To our heart there comes a longing
If he only could come home.

Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heart-aches
Our smiles hold all the while.

Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech.
But not too far for thought to reach
And often in our dreams we see him
As in days that use to be.

And now while on our shortning way
The shadows come and go,
We love to think, that thou are free,
From every earthly wore.

And when our Father calls us home,
May we be ready then to go
To meet in perfect peace and love,
Those we loved of long ago.

For the dissemination of the Primitive Faith, and practice of the early Christian as taught by Jesus Christ and His apostles and as handed down to the present day by the OLD GERMAN BAPTIST CHURCH.

It contends for the Ancient Principles of the Old Church, and for the Old Paths. It admonishes to humility, love and peace; a check to the rapid growth of pride and popularity; a renunciation of sin in all of its various forms, and a deeper work of grace in the heart, etc.

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like minded, one toward another, according to Christ Jesus: that ye may with ONE mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God." (Romans 15:4-7).

As you journey on your way?
Gladly watching and rejoicing
At the thought of endless day?
Singing songs of glad hosannas
That will echo loud and clear,
Will you hail with joy His coming?
For that coming may be near.

Will you shout when you behold Him,
And with rapture take your flight?
Will your lamps be trimmed and burning,
Are they ready day and night?
If you're ready for His coming,
How your gladsome shouts will ring,
As you rise with saints to glory
At the coming of the King!

Sincerily,
Cora Anderson

GARBER—David E. Garber, second child of a family of eight children of John and Catherine Garber, was born May 23, 1870, and passed peacefully away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ezra Brubaker, October 15, 1950, age 80 years, 4 months, 22 days.

October 10, 1891, he was united in marriage to Lydia Metzger. To this union were born 6 chidren, 2 sons and 4 daughters, 1 son and 1 daughter preceded in infancy.

Eary in life he accepted his Saviour and made his covenant with the Old German Baptist Church, in which faith he remained faithful, serving in the capacity of Deacon and Minister for over fifty years. He bore his afflictions with much patience and Christian fortitude. Realizing his failing condition, he called for the Elders and was anointed with oil in the name of the Lord as given by the Apostle James, which gave him much consolation and Faith in coming forth in the First Resurrection.

After the departure of his companion February 28, 1948, he made his home with his children, patiently awaiting his departure.

He leaves to mourn his passing 1 son, Brother John Garber; 3 daughters: Sister Minnie Eller, Sister Orpha Brubaker, and Mrs. Harold Eikenberry, with their companions; eleven grandchildren; two foster grandchildren; 7 great-grandchildren; two brothers: Brother Perry Garber, and Brother George Garber; two sisters, Sister Susie Miller and Sister Minnie Fisher, many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services at Maple Grove Upper Twin Church house conducted by the undersigned and Elder Willie Eller and Samuel Leedy after which the body was laid to rest in the Sugar Grove cemetery there awaiting the resurrection morning. A large concourse of members and friends at the church and cemetery in respect of the departed.

HACKMAN—Jacob L. Hackman, a member of the Old German Baptist Brethren at Lincoln, Lancaster Co., Pa., passed from this life on Nov. 3, 1950, at the age of 88 years, 7 months, and 25 days, in the home of Brother Charles Hackman where he was cared for in the last 5 weeks of his pilgrimage here on earth. His wife, Kate Hackman preceded him in death 10 years ago.

He was a brother of few words, but kept a firm faith in the expectation of a victorious eternal life. Surviving are 7 children: Mrs. Wayne Brubaker, John, Mrs. Alvin Hummer, Jacob M., Mrs. Chester Weaver, Charles M., and Arthur; 33 grandchildren; and 30 great grandchildren.

His body was laid to rest in the Middle Creek Cemetery to await the call of the Master. Services by the Brethren.

RUTROUGH—Earnest Eugene Rutrough was the only surviving son of Brother Earnest and Sister Minnie (Wells) Rutrough He died within the bounds of the Peters Creek Congregation, Roanoke Co., Va., on October 16, 1950. Age 20 years, 9 months, and 6 days.

He was stricken with Polio, was taken to Memorial and Crippled Children Hospital in Roanoke on Wednesday. He gradually grew worse and on Saturday he called for the anointing and seemingly gained a little, but soon became partially paralyzed and on Monday following he passed away.

He leaves his grief-stricken companion and little daughter; father and mother; grandmother, Sister Minnie Rutrough; and grandmother, Mrs. Zora Wells; and many friends and relatives to mourn their loss which we feel is his gain. He always had a pleasant expression, whenever you met him. One brother preceded him in infancy.

He was united in marriage to Lydia Elizabeth Wertz on September 2, 1947. He, with his companion were received into the Old German Baptist Church by baptism 7 months later.

Funeral by the brethren at Peters Creek Church on the 19th to a house filled with sorrowing Brethren and Sisters and friends. Text Mat. 24:44. His body was laid to rest in Cedar Lawn near the Church. We look forward to seeing him in a better land, not as we left him: with hands and limbs drawn and paralyzed, but with a perfect body like unto the Lord's glorious body as it pleaseth Him.

OBITUARY CORRECTION

In the obituary of Sister Lydia Keister in the October issue the information as first sent was incorrect and should show the death of the infant son in 1897 instead of 1890 as printed.
